

Classical Christian Academy Partnership Agreement

Family Responsibilities and Expectations: This document outlines the responsibilities of CCA families. Please refer to the current CCA Handbook for full details.

Church Commitment

- At least one parent must be a confessed believer and actively involved in a local church.
- New families must submit a pastoral reference from a Christian church.
- Families enrolled for three or more years must submit a Follow-Up Questionnaire from their church.
- CCA may send follow-up questionnaires to confirm continued church involvement.

Refer to the “Concept of a Covenant Community” for additional information.

Educational Responsibilities

Home Teaching Commitment

- Families must implement assigned at-home lessons two or 3 days per week depending on track as directed by CCA teachers.
- Teachers are available by phone, email, or appointment to provide guidance and support.
- Families must follow the CCA Absence Policy regarding schoolwork completion.

Curriculum and Materials

- Parents are responsible for purchasing all required curriculum and supplies.
- Students may not begin classes without the required materials.
- Curriculum lists are posted on the CCA website by June 1.

Refer to the High School Handbook for graduation requirements and the five-year graduation plan.

Honesty and Transparency

- Parents must provide accurate academic, medical, and disciplinary history during enrollment.
- Full disclosure is required to ensure proper student placement and support.

Moral and Biblical Training

- Parents are responsible for their child’s spiritual and moral development in the home.
- CCA partners with families to reinforce biblical values.
- Upon admission, parents must have completed an approved parenting course or must complete one within one year of enrollment.

Financial Responsibility

- A Financial Agreement must be signed annually.
- Accounts must remain current for class attendance, grade access, and transcript requests.

- Accounts that are 40 or more days delinquent are subject to dismissal, and student records (excluding medical records) may be withheld.
- Families are expected to support fundraising efforts that help offset operational expenses.

Refer to your Financial Agreement or the CCA website for full financial policies.

Parent Training and Meetings

- New Parent Orientation and Curriculum Trainings prior to the start of school are required for all new families.
- Additional parent training may be required depending on curriculum or program participation.
- Three Parent Meetings are held each school year. Attendance is recorded.
- Families who miss required Parent Meetings may be required to meet with administration and may be assigned additional Parent Partner Days the following school year.
- Children are not permitted at parent meetings.

Parent Involvement and Serving Requirements

On-Campus Parent Partner Days

- New families are required to serve four Parent Partner Days per year (7 hours per day).
- Returning families are required to serve three Parent Partner Days per year.

History Day

- Participation in History Day is mandatory for all families for a minimum of five service hours.
- Failure to complete required Parent Partner Days or History Day obligations will result in fines and may impact future enrollment eligibility. Refer to the Parent Partner Policy on the CCA website for additional details.

Additional Ways to Serve

- Assisting before the start of the school year
- Coaching a sports team

Committee Service and School Events

- Families enrolled in four or more classes are required to serve on a school committee.
- Participation in required school events is essential to maintaining a strong partnership with CCA.

Important Notices

- Failure to fulfill partnership responsibilities may affect continued enrollment or re-enrollment eligibility. In the case of divorced/separated parents, the family will be treated as a unit, and parents must determine together how to satisfy these requirements. CCA will not mediate between parents.
- Fines may be assessed for missed Parent Partner Days, History Day obligations, or required meetings.
- Continued enrollment is contingent upon compliance with CCA policies and the successful maintenance of a cooperative partnership.

For additional information, please refer to the CCA Handbook or contact the school administration.
