ABOUT CCA

Classical Christian Academy is a small, private, college-preparatory Christian school serving students in grades K4–12 since 2004. CCA combines scheduled on-campus instruction with structured at-home coursework. Students receive direct instruction from faculty and complete assigned reading, writing, problem-solving, laboratory, and other academic work outside the classroom. Small graduating cohorts allow close faculty support and meaningful opportunities for student responsibility and leadership.

PROGRAM DISTINCTIVES

HYBRID MODEL — CCA’s program blends scheduled classroom instruction with structured at-home learning. Teachers establish the academic sequence, provide direct instruction, assign coursework, and assess student learning. At-home days allow students time for reading, writing, projects, practice, and preparation for their next on-campus class while developing increasing independence and responsibility.

CLASSICAL CURRICULUM — The academic program uses the classical liberal-arts tradition to cultivate students who can read closely, reason carefully, communicate clearly, and connect ideas across disciplines. Logic and Rhetoric are intentional parts of the Upper School sequence, complementing coursework in literature, history, mathematics, science, language, Bible, apologetics and the arts.

FORMATION & LEADERSHIP — Small classes support discussion, faculty mentoring, and increasing student responsibility. Within CCA’s Christian community, students practice leadership through service, collaboration, and accountability to others.

ADVANCED ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

HONORS — Designated Honors options are available in selected academic courses. Eligibility and availability vary by course and year.

DUAL ENROLLMENT — Approved college coursework is available to eligible students through current institutional partners and may be completed online or on campus.

CLEP — Students are encouraged to earn college credit by taking CLEP examinations when appropriate to the course sequence and student readiness.

CCA does not offer AP, IB, or AICE courses. Select dual enrollment courses are offered through our partnership with Florida SouthWestern State College, University of Florida, and Southeastern University.
